In Wales, Mrs Grimes should see...

Mount Snowdon

Mount Snowdon is the highest mountain in Wales, at 1,085 metres above sea level. The Welsh name for Snowdon is Yr Wyddfa and old legends said a giant was buried in the mountain!

Caernarfon Castle

Prince Charles, who is next in line for the throne, was crowned 'Prince of Wales' in Caernarfon Castle in 1969. The fishing town of Caernarfon is within the castle's stone walls.

Principality Stadium

The Principality Stadium is a national stadium of Wales, located in the Welsh capital city of Cardiff. It was opened in 1999 and hosts many events including sports matches and music concerts. It is the home of the Welsh national rugby union team.

Menai Bridge

The Menai Bridge connects mainland north Wales with the Isle of Anglesey. The bridge opened in 1826 and reduced the long journey from London to Holyhead, by 9 hours.

Cardiff Bay

Cardiff Bay is a freshwater lake on the outskirts of the main city. The water is provided from two rivers which flow into the lake.

In the bay there are plenty of restaurants and shopping outlets as well as lots of water sport activities to take part in.

Barry Island

Barry Island is a lovely seaside resort for families to visit, full of golden sand and amusement arcades!

This location was made famous in the BBC sitcom Gavin and Stacey, so lots of visitors like to visit the places this was filmed!
