Everyone Individual

What makes you an individual?

Questions to think about in class.

What are you good at?

What are your special talents?

Can you see the special talents of other people?

What is it that makes your friends different to you?

How can you celebrate individuality?

What other values will we need to help us understand Individuality?

What would the world be like if we did not value individuality?

Today you are YOU,
that is TRUER than true.
There is NO ONE alive
who is YOUER than YOU!

~ Dr. Seuss

Be yourself. Everyone else is already taken.

- Oscar Wilde
