

Facts about bears that we will know

A habitat is the natural environment for an animal.

Bears live in different habitats.

To recognise the habitats of panda and polar bears.

Bears eat meat, beans, nuts and grass.

Bears have broad heads, extended jaws, heavy paws, powerful claws and shaggy coats.

Bears vary in size according to their species.

Polar bears appear to be white; most other types are black or brown.

The types of bears we will learn about and will be able to name

Polar bear

Brown bear

Black bear

Sloth bear

Moon bear (Asian black bear)

Sun bear

Giant panda.

Facts about panda bears

Pandas are white with black fur on their eyes and ears.

They eat bamboo.

They can climb and swim.

They live on mountains in China.

Their woolly coats keep them warm.

We're Going on a Bear Hunt

Unifying Question:

What are the different types of bears?
(To be answered in the form of an answer to a question)

Seasons and festivals

A season is a part of the year marked by changes in weather and amount of daylight.

Christmas is the annual Christian festival celebrating Jesus Christ's birth.

Hanukkah is the annual Jewish festival. The celebration lasts for eight nights.

Diwali is the Hindu festival of lights. It is celebrated over five days.

Facts about polar bears

Polar bears have black skin; their fur is white.

They eat meat.

They use arctic sea ice as a platform to hunt for their food.

They are the largest carnivore that lives on land.

A carnivore is a meat eater.

Polar bears are only found in the Arctic.